

EPB graduates celebrate in style at the Aruba Resort, Casino & Spa

It is graduation time, and the students of the EPB, Educacion Profesional Basico did especially well this year, breaking all records with 84% of 219 students passing their exams to go on to careers or higher learning. Teachers, parents, and administrators were rightfully proud as they watched Principal Ida Lamp distribute the diplomas during a gala reception at the Aruba Resort, Casino, and Spa, which hosted the graduates and their families.

Everyone was dressed in their formal best, and the self-satisfaction that the students felt was evident on their faces as they lines up to shake hands with Ms. Lamp and receive their certificates of achievement. Alex Figueroa, who teaches Science and Electrical Engineering, stated that the students worked and studied very, very hard this year, and the school is very satisfied with their performance. They all enjoyed a beautiful, well-earned party, and after a special dinner, dance the night away to the music of the EPB band! Congratulations to the newest crop of EPB graduates, THE NEWS wishes you all the greatest success in your endeavors!
